

PARTENARIAT INER UNIVERSITAIRE

«The Energy Challenges at the Beginning of the 21st Century in the Light of International Law»

Table of contents

International Workshop

8 and 9 decembre 2010

Preliminary report: Stéphane Doumbé-Billé

Chapter 1 : Sovereignty Challenges

Section 1 : Energy and International Investments Law

- International investments law and state control over natural resources (Frédérique Lozanorios, ATER)
- Settlement of disputes related to energy matters (Baba Hamady Deme, Allocataire-moniteur)

Section 2 : Challenges of Sovereignty and Energy Dependence

- Energy dependence and General International Law (M. Mircea Dutu, Professeur)
- Energy supply and state of necessity (Mariana Lunca, Doctorante)

Chapter 2 : Cooperation Challenges

Section 1 : International Organizations Action

- International organizations and energy (Anna-Maria Smolinska, ATER)
- Regional organisations in post sovietic states (Rima Tkatova, Doctorante)
- The African Union and its implementation of universal rules (Guy Fleury Ntwari, Doctorant)
- The articulation between free trade rules (OMC ; UE) (Mme le Baut Ferrarese, Maître de conférences)

Section 2 : The Example of the UE

- Division of Competences Between the European Union and the Member States in the Area of Energy Law (Piotr Bogdanowicz et Katarzyna Karasiewicz, Doctorants)
- External action of European Union (Juliette Prouteau, Allocataire-moniteur)
- Energy and environmental challenges in the European Union (Mme Kenig-Witkowska, Professeur)

Chapter 3 : Energy and International Environmental Law

Section 1 : Energy and Environment Challenges

- Energy and climate change (Mariem Sabil, Doctorante)
- Energy security and international environment law (resource ; production ; transport) (Caroline Migazzi, Doctronante)

Section 2 : New Energy Challenges

- The development of biomass énergies and international environmental law (Mme Isabelle Michallet, Maître de conférences)
- The right to energy, a new human right ? (Kiara Neri, ATER)